

DULDIG STUDIO WHAT'S ON SEPT - OCT - NOV 2019

Karl Duldig, Nofretete (detail), 1970, terracotta.

PROGRAMS & EVENTS | duldig.org.au/whats-on-now/

Drawing Duldig

Sundays: 15 Sept & 13 Oct, 1 – 4pm

Drop-in guided drawing sessions - Visitors of all skill levels are welcome to sketch in-doors and out-doors.

Cost: $5 entry. FREE Duldig Friends & Supporters.

Weekend Open Times

Sundays: 15 Sept & 13 Oct, 10 Nov, 1 - 4pm

Take a stroll in the sculpture garden, view rare collection items and see fascinating footage of the Duldig family.

Gold coin donation. Guided tour at 2pm..

September School Holiday Program: Mysterious Masks

Children will design and model your own clay mask. Suitable for ages 6-12.

Wed 25 September 10.30am - 12.00pm

Cost $45 per workshop

Wed 2 October, 10.30am - 12.00pm

Includes firing

Thursday 3 October, 2.00 - 3.30pm

(Discounts for siblings or multiple workshops)

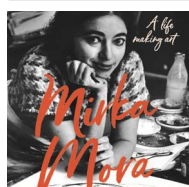

Duldig Book Club - 1st Thursday of each month, 10.30am and 6.30pm

5 September - The Remains of the Day, by Kazuo Ishiguru (Facilitated by Fiona Clarke)

3 October - Dinner at the Homesick Restaurant, by Anne Tyler (Facilitated by Merren Ricketson)

7 November - The Improbability of Love, by Hannah Rothschild (Facilitated by Fiona Clarke)

Cost: $20 adults, $18 Duldig Friends & Supporters, $15 Concession/Students. Refreshments Provided.

Mirka Mora: A life of Making Art with author Sabine Cotte

Thursday 26 September, 6-8pm

Duldig Studio's conservation consultant, Dr Sabine Cotte will present a talk on her recently published book Mirka Mora: A Life of Making Art. An opportunity to hear Sabine's unique insights into Mirka's art, public commissions and artistic networks including the Duldig family.

Cost: $12 Adult, $10 concession. FREE for Duldig Friends and Supporters. Followed by refreshments.

Annual Duldig Lecture

Coming up in October! Details to be announced shortly. FREE event.

The Annual Duldig Lecture will be held at The University of Melbourne. Dr Jane Eckett, postdoctoral researcher and teaching assistant in art history at the University of Melbourne will present a keynote address about artist estates and modernist sculpture.

Image: Dr Jane Eckett. Image courtesy of the University of Melbourne.

2019 Family Day & Clay for Kids exhibition.

Sunday 10 November, 1 – 4pm. FREE. ALL WELCOME

Family fun and clay activities with trained sculptor, Stefan Damschke. Lemonade Stall. Studio viewing. Clay for Kids Exhibition and Awards.

Proudly sponsored by the City of Stonnington

EXHIBITION | duldig.org.au/whats-on-now/

SLAWA modernist art + design: Art, innovation and reinvention

Discover the world of a Viennese modernist in Melbourne

An exhibition by the Austrian-Australian artist, Slawa Horowitz-Duldig (1901-1975). Presenting her early graphic works and sculptures, remarkable survivors of war and dislocation, the exhibition gives insight into Viennese art of the early modernist period. Follow SLAWA's story – told through her drawings, sculptures, fashion and furniture design, and her ingenious invention of the folding umbrella.

Group Tours

Group Tours for 6 or more visitors are available on weekends and weekdays. Admission is $20 a person (includes tea or coffee, and Viennese cake).

Advance booking required

duldig.org.au/visit/

museum + sculpture garden

OPEN Tuesdays and Thursdays - 1.00pm – 3.00 pm (Guided Tour at 2.00 pm). Entry fees apply. Second Sunday of every month - 1.00pm – 4.00 pm (gold coin donation). Guided Tour at 2.00 pm.

92 Burke Rd, East Malvern, Victoria | enquiries@duldig.org.au | +61 (3) 9885 3358

duldig.org.au

@duldigstudio

@TheDuldigStudio